

Within the cultural activities in the Department of Astronomy & Space for November/2013 , the entitled symposium “ Prospects for image processing and remote sensing “ was held , it opened by the attending of the Assistant Chancellor Prof. Alaa Kareem Mohammad accompanied with the Dean of Collage of Science Prof. salih h Mehdi Ali and a group of the teaching staff and students .

lectures about the topic were delivered by the experts confirmed on the importance of using imaging process in scientific and research fields specially at revealing crimes and the criminal investigations (CID).