

Regarding to the importance of the educational process and continuing with the aims of College of Science which is represented by the Dean Character Prof. Salih Mehdi Ali ,besides to the efforts in making the all participate in developing the scientific level and raising the efficiency of the Iraqi individual and Iraqi student specially .

College of Science coordinated with the Education Directorate of the second Karkh to enroll a group of distinguished students schools for girls and boys in a training program which is supervised by the Head of the Central Environmental Laboratory Prof. Moutaz Al Dabbas and the chemist Ali Abid Al Reda Shkarah In collaboration with the Iraqi Student Foundation to make students participate in the world championship which will be held in Britain including 35 states, it is within the British Council Activities to produce the best seven environment projects , so the administrative staff of the Environment Lab. Support these students and developed their skills to be ready to compete with the others and getting best results to raise the name of Iraq in the national occasions.

The program lasted for 3 days included a training on writing of the projects procedures , defining the environmental problem , identifying the strengths and the perfect investment for the available opportunities

{vsig}2112014_n{/vsig}